2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal Ambassadors for Christ

As of February 24, the Development Office has received pledges totaling $19,110.00 and payments totaling $18,872.50 from 41 parishioners. This represents 38.2% of our $50,000.00 goal.

By now you have received a letter from Bishop Checchio inviting your participation in the 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal. The diocesan ministries supported by the Appeal directly impact many of the parishioners here in St. Peter's Church. Your gift provides formation opportunities for our catechists, deacons, youth and young adults. Among other important ministries, your sacrificial giving also allows our hospital chaplains to minister to those experiencing physical and emotional pain and helps to prepare our seminarians for a life in the priesthood.

If you have yet to make your pledge to this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal, you will have the opportunity to do so next weekend, March 11/12, which has been designated as Bishop's Annual Appeal In-Pew Weekend. Please prayerfully consider a gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal to help our parish reach its goal. If we can exceed our goal, 50% of the amount collected over goal will be returned to us in the form of a parish rebate. Just as important as our financial goal is our goal of reaching 100% participation. Every gift, no matter the size, is important and greatly appreciated. Thank you.

The Bishop's brief 4 minute Video Message will be presented in the Parish Hall after each Mass next weekend, March 11/12. Please stop downstairs right after Mass.

2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal Prayer Ambassadors for Christ

Lord God,
You appointed St. Paul your apostle to preach the good news of salvation to the nations.
May his example and prayers inspire the faithful of the Diocese of Metuchen to become Ambassadors for Christ.

Fill our hearts with the spirit of your charity
so that we may please you in our thoughts, words and deeds and be witnesses to the hope that does not disappoint.

You have given each of us different gifts and made us your stewards to generously share on earth the blessings we have received through your goodness
so that the world may be reconciled to you.
May the prayers of St. Paul and all the saints be our constant encouragement so that we may be worthy ambassadors for your Son.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

WHAT SHOULD I GIVE UP FOR LENT?

Lent is the perfect time to form new life-giving habits and abandon old self-destructive habits. But most of us just give up chocolate. Then, when Easter arrives, we realize we really haven't grown spiritually since the beginning of Lent.

Giving things up can help us to have a meaningful Lent, but that's not what Lent is really all about. Lent is about doing something—something bold to become a better husband or wife, father or mother, son or daughter, friend, neighbor, etc.

What if this year you did more than just give up something during Lent? Do something life-changing.

Here are options you can sign up online for that will be sent to you each day, or twice a week or just once a week. Whatever you sign up for, may your Lenten season be greatly blessed with graces that transform, liberate and heal you.

This year's Best Lent Ever program is based on Matthew Kelly's newest book, Resisting Happiness. That's the same book that we gave out at Christmas (we still have some copies available if you don't already have one). Sign up for Best Lent Ever and every day throughout Lent you will receive practical tips and inspirational videos from Matthew Kelly and the Dynamic Catholic team to empower you to have a truly meaningful Lent.

Each day from Ash Wednesday (March 1) through Easter Sunday (April 16), Bishop Barron will send you a short email with an uplifting reflection. The reflections are available in both English and Spanish; each pertain to the daily Gospel reading from Mass instead of being general spiritual reflections. This will help unite all of us even more to the Church's sacred liturgy. You will also receive a beautiful prayer graphic highlighting a quote from the reflection.

Stewardship

A Way of Life

"It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." MATTHEW 4:10

Tempted between the riches and power of this world and service to God, Jesus chose service to His Father. If we wish to truly follow Jesus, we, too, must decide to turn away from power and riches and put God at the center of our lives. How is God calling you to serve?

Respect for Life

As we begin the journey of Lent, we have clear cut choices to make, as spelled out in Deuteronomy, 30:19: "I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse; therefore choose life, that you and your descendants may live..." Isn't it up to us to choose life and ignore the "false gods" of our culture telling us that the killing of the unborn is morally acceptable?

THE ROMANCE OF LENT, How to Give your Lent a Great Start By Edward Sri

The words Lent and romance typically don't go together. Lent brings to mind drudgery, sacrifice, and slogging through the dreary days of March without our favorite treats. What's romantic about that? Sure, we know we're supposed to give up something for Lent—"It's a good thing to do"—but for many of us, the whole season feels like one long "No".

At its essence, however, Lent is all about love. It's about creating more space in our hearts to hear God's voice. It's a time for re-kindling devotion to the Lord, so that we ardently say "Yes" to Him more in our lives. And one of the best ways we can do that is through fasting.

Fasting: Discovering the "Deep Caverns" of Your Soul

But don't think fasting is just about "giving something up." The heart of fasting is found in Jesus' response to the devil's first temptation in the wilderness. Jesus said, "Man does not live by bread alone." When we abstain a bit from the enjoyments of this world, we become more in touch with a deeper hunger in our souls that no food, drink or pleasure in this world can satisfy: our hunger and thirst for God.

St. John of the Cross taught that the soul has deep caverns which only the infinite God can fill. Yet when we feed our stomach whenever it's hungry, busy ourselves with constant activity, and amuse ourselves on screens at every spare moment, we not only become slaves to our appetites. We are distracted from our heart's deepest longing, which is for God.

Certainly, food, drink, activity, entertainments and sex are not bad. But they can never fill us. No matter how much savory food we eat, how much money we make, how many "likes" we receive, or how much sex we have, we are constantly longing for something more. One more bite, one more drink, one more click won't give us the fulfillment we seek. The deep caverns of our soul long to be filled, but, as St. John of the Cross explained, "anything less than the infinite fails to fill them."

Stepping back and abstaining from certain enjoyments in life helps free us from being enslaved to them and gives God room to draw out our deeper desire for Him. It reminds us of the profound truth St. Augustine expressed in his famous prayer to God, "You have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You O God."

Fasting from Media

But fasting is not only about food. In the Catholic tradition, a similar pursuit of moderation has been applied to other things in life that aren't necessary, such as conversation, rest, media and entertainment. As one ancient hymn for the Lenten liturgy expressed, "Let us use sparingly words, food and drink, sleep and amusements. May we be more alert in the custody of our senses." Pope Francis and Pope Benedict have encouraged us to consider limiting our use of the internet, television and social media during Lent. Faced with constant noise and visual distraction—incessant beeps, vibrations, images and updates—it's hard for us to truly encounter God and the people God has placed in our lives. Fasting from various forms of media can help cultivate more silence in our lives so that we can hear God and see the people right around us. As Blessed Mother Teresa once said, "We need to find God, and he cannot be found in noise and restlessness. God is the friend of silence. See how nature – trees, flowers, grass – grows in silence; see the stars, the moon and the sun, how they move in silence. We need silence to be able to touch souls."

Tricky Tray News!

Thanks to all those who voted for St. Peter's Tricky Tray. For the second year in a row, we were voted the 4th Best Tricky Tray in the Tri-State area! We are already gearing up to make this year's event better than ever! Please consider joining our team. We meet once a month on a Sunday after the 11am mass. We will meet for the first time this year on Sunday, March 12th at Noon in the Archives Room. Light refreshments will be served and all meetings are wrapped up by 1pm.

We will start up our Basket of the Month collection in March. Our first basket will be no surprise...Spring Cleaning! We will collect everything and anything you could use for cleaning, sponges, brushes, pails, detergents, soap, you name it. Please place your items in the basket that will be in the back of church and as always, thank you for your support.

2nd Sunday Food Collection— March 11th/12th

One of the ways we are able to perform the Lenten practice of almsgiving is by giving to those in need. Here at St. Peter's, we would like to re-establish our second Sunday of the month practice of donating food for the food banks. Very often it is the "working poor" who are in need of food. Families who struggle to make ends meet often find themselves with not enough money to buy food. Your donation helps to ease the burden of those in our community who are in need of our support. Please bring your donations next week and place them in the basket at the right entrance of the church (confessional side) in the basket marked "Food Donations". We will be collecting non-perishable items such as rice, beans, cereal, canned vegetables, pasta, etc. Please do not bring glass items or any that have expired.

This is a practice that we would like to continue throughout the year, not just during Lent. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Lord, when did I see You hungry and feed You? Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." Matthew 25: 36, 40

Knights of Columbus Baby Bottle Collection
